

Government of India
Ministry of Home Affairs
(Centre-States Division)

Sub: Acknowledging public responses regarding the new capital for the successor State of Andhra Pradesh - regarding.

The Expert Committee constituted by the Ministry of Home Affairs, Government of India to study various alternatives regarding the New Capital for the successor State of Andhra Pradesh had invited suggestions in this regard from the public at large by the 7th May, 2014. In response to MHA's advertisement in the website, a large number of e-mails and letters have been received.

On behalf of the Expert Committee, the Ministry of Home Affairs hereby acknowledges with thanks the receipt of suggestions from all such members of the public and organizations who have responded with their feedback to help the Committee in its endeavour.